Official Paper of the City.

Forever float that standard sheet!
Where breathes the foe but falls before us?
With Freedom's soil beneath our feet,
And Freedom's banner streaming o'er us!

Easily Satisfied.

The Milwaukee Sentinel thinks we are restive and dissatisfied with things in general, in consequence, we suppose, of our plain way of speaking in relation to the want of progress the in war, and the aimlessness of our national policy.

The Sentinel can stand a good deal of grief. In fact it isn't troubled about anything. "Whatever is, is right," with that paper.

If the generals all move at once, it is exactly what it expected—in truth, it is the plan that the Sentinel originated.

If one general starts out alone, and gets surrounded and killed, that is a part of a great strategic plan, which the Sentinel sees through, has seen it all the time, and the public is cautioned to wait a little, and they will see it too.

The Sentinel is in favor of arming the slaves. It has urged this plan from the first. The secretary of war is right.

The president thinks arming the slaves is not a good thing, and the Milwaukee Sentinel thinks so too. The secretary of war is wrong.

The arrest of Mason and Slidell was right—a brave thing—Capt. Wilkes deserves the highest honor. As the arrest of Mason and Slidell was wrong, according to Mr. Seward, "there is no dishonor in giving them up." It is a good thing to give up Mason and Slidell.

The Sentinel was in favor of the principle of Fremont's proclamation, and also thought the president right in modifying it. But the Sentinel was opposed to Fremont's proclamation. After the president had signified his disapprobation of it, it opposed all proclamations.

The Sentinel is opposed to any advance of our armies at this time. Let us wait till Washington is safe, and until McClellan is ready. If an advance should be made in the course of the next year, the Sentinel will tell us it was in favor of the advance being made, just at the time it was made, and that the generals carried out its plans, exactly.

Since the suspension of specie payments by the eastern banks, the Sentinel pronounces it a wise act, "from which will result a more liberal advancement of credits"—that is, speculation. On the other hand, it opposes the suspension of specie payments by our own banks, because it will encourage speculation. When our banks suspend the Sentinel will pronounce it "all right—the wisest thing they could do."

So goes on our easy friends of the Sentinel—"happy as clams"—satisfied with everything. With them there is no rebellion—no trouble with England—money market all right—the army moving just fast enough. In fact, with a deluge roaring around it, with head just above water, the Sentinel would pronounce it "not much of a shower after all." Exactly the rain we expected—nothing more. It was our plan and Noah's to have just such a sprinkle.

Perhaps it is right to have just such hold-back, conservative kind of papers as the Sentinel to balance and check the too great tendency to go-ahead on the part of other newspapers, which desire to have things smashed up immediately, when they go wrong. There is, we is told, two principles in physical nature which oppose each other in this way, and why not in morals and politics also? Let the Sentinel go on in its slow, "neither-hot-nor-cold" policy, and tolerate those who are more restive, if it can. It may serve a purpose in this way. See Revelations, chap. 3, v. 15-16.

We do not know how patriotic Mason and Slidell are, but they must be very patriotic to feel particularly felicitous over the dissatisfaction expressed all over the South at their release from imprisonment. This dissatisfaction does not argue that any essential results were expected from their mission. It does argue that the forlorn hope of the rebels is European intervention on their behalf. It is pretty certain that one of two things will happen to them within a brief space of time. Overthrow and rout of their armies, or European intervention on their behalf.—Chicago Times.

The loyal people of the free states who are furnishing the 600,000 men and $2,000,000 a day to carry on the war against rebellion have long entertained the opinion that the rebellion must be speedily suppressed, or European nations would intervene in behalf of the seceded states. It is to prevent such a calamity as foreign interference that the people are desirous of an energetic prosecution of the war, and their anxiety on this point leads to all the complaints against the inactivity of the federal government.—They believe, moreover, that a tender regard for the preservation of slavery, or a senseless fear of the outcry about "abolitionism," is restraining the arm of the government and paralysing the energies of the army and navy. They prefer the preservation of the Union to the preservation of slavery, and demand the life of the former even if it is necessary to exterminate the latter to accomplish the more important object. Are they unreasonable?

FOUND.—A bunch of keys which the owner can have by applying at this office.

More Demands from England.

The rumor which is brought by the passengers of the Asia, that England intends to make further demands on us, in relation to the blockade, will surprise no one. The surrender of Mason and Slidell will only encourage further acts of aggression. It is useless to speculate about the action of foreign nations towards us—our duty now is to prepare ourselves for the conflict, as it will certainly come if we are unprepared. Thorough preparation is the only way to prevent a foreign war, and we ought to enter upon the subject of self-defence with the vigor and energy which the importance of the crisis demands. Every furnace should make rifled cannon, and every ship-yard should build vessels of war. If we delay, our loss will be immense. War must become our occupation. Why, then, not make a business of it without wasting precious time?

Correspondence of the Daily Gazette.

Thoughts for Young Men.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—With your permission, believing that many young men are in the daily habit of reading your journal, I will furnish a few brief articles for their special consideration; and I think young women may derive some benefit from their perusal. If I can make these thoughts suggestive; if I can induce habits of reflection, and persuade young persons to cherish desires and adopt means for general improvement, my object will be accomplished.

A suitable theme with which to commence may be

THE AIMS OF LIFE.

The young man should start out in his career of life with a worthy and noble object in view. Some well defined purpose should be formed; some proper course of action should be plainly marked out. Like the careful builder, he should work to certain "plans and specifications." He should be sure to commence right; he should lay a good foundation; avoiding the drifting sands, he should dig deep, if necessary, and make the solid rock his basis; in this case the superstructure which he may erect, shall be substantial and lasting; the storms and tempests of time shall beat upon it in vain. An aimless life—a life without a purpose, cannot be otherwise than useless and miserable. Barren of high purposes and praiseworthy deeds, it must of necessity be barren of anything like rational enjoyment.—Such a life may be likened to a ship at sea, destitute of rudder, compass, or chart—drifting hither and thither at the mercy of winds and waves! He that leads an aimless life is merely a drone in the great hive of humanity. The drone among bees may and in all probability does, subserve some useful design in the busy colony of honey-makers; but of the human drone the most that can be said, is that he is a nuisance, a pest to society. Better not live at all than live to no good purpose. Make up your minds, young men, to do something. Form some definite plans for future action; make choice of some honorable calling. If agriculture, the mechanic arts, or any of the learned professions, so called, shall engage your attention, enter with zeal and spirit upon your favorite pursuits, with a determination to excel, if possible, at least to make good progress in the calling of your choice.

Permit me here to suggest that it would be well for you to take into consideration your ability, or the prospect of ultimate fitness, for the particular post of duty which you feel inclined to occupy. You should exercise your judgment, and seek advice from those whose age and experience qualify them to give it, in regard to your choice of an occupation. When the selection is made, let your motto be onward. Let your aims be high; let all your designs and efforts be such as integrity, virtue and religion may approve. Adhere unflinchingly to the resolution that you will succeed only by worthy means.

I wish you to note particularly what I said in regard to the character of your calling. I made use of the word honorable as the qualifying term. Enter upon no business the pursuit of which will oblige you to disregard any moral obligation. Rum-selling, for instance, is disreputable and degrading; it will be impossible for you to follow it and maintain at the same time a conscience void of offense toward God and men. Shun this and all other unworthy pursuits.

"To plow and to sow, to reap and to mow," to enter upon some scientific, mechanical, or professional vocation, will not subject you to moral censure.

These suggestions must suffice on the aims of life. W.

Jan. 1st, 1862.

Admitting the general diffusion of the arts of reading and writing among the people, there is a special ignorance of any thing but American notions which is very astonishing. I may mention in proof of this that I have received several letters requesting me to appear in public for the aid of benevolent or literary societies, the writers of which were good enough either to elevate me to the peerage, or were laboring under the delusion that the noble earl at the head of the foreign office was seeking relaxation from the cares of his department by acting as special correspondent in the United States. These letters were written by secretaries of associations or by people who were literary enough to keep collections of autographs.—Russell's London Times Letter.

Good for Russell! After our people get a few more such surly rebuffs, we hope they will get over what seems an almost irresistable propensity to toady to every inflated foreigner who comes among us.

☞ We learn by a private letter from Sulphur Springs, Mo., that a member of the 11th Wisconsin regiment was shot not long since by one of our own sentinels, for not giving the countersign when required.

ALARMING!—A new disease is said to have broken out in Washington, under the operation of which two patriots have paid back to the government stolen money.

If this disease should attack all who may be made subjects of it, there would be a greater mortality than from all other diseases in the camp. We hope its ravages may not be confined to Washington.

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE, Office in Union Passenger Depot.

Last Night's Report.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 31.

A private dispatch received here mentions as among the killed at Paducah, Capt. Albert Baker of this city. He belonged to a Kentucky regiment raised near Frankfort. The dispatch gives no particulars of the battle.

NEW YORK, Dec. 31.

A private dispatch received from Washington states that Gen. McClellan, on investigating the specification of charges against Brig. Gen. Benham, has ordered the latter released from arrest, and he is to be ordered at once to duty.

OTTERVILLE, Mo., Dec. 31.

One of our men captured by the rebels near Clinton and carried to Springfield has just returned, having left that place on Christmas. He says Price, with 8,000 men had taken all the houses in Springfield for his troops, turning women and children into the streets. He had unloaded his wagons and was making preparations for a long stay. The men of Arkansas refused to allow Price to enter that state with any other troops than those regularly enlisted in the confederate service, and he had only 1,500 men from Arkansas in that service. The country north of Springfield was full of men returning from Price's army, who said if they were permitted to return home and take the oath of allegiance Price would be left with only his his regular confederate troops.

Since Gen. Pope's rapid operations last week there is perfect quiet in all the region between the Missouri and Osage rivers, not a rumor of rebel camps or squads being heard.

HALIFAX, Dec. 31.

Passengers by the Asia report a rumor that the blockade of Charleston harbor with stone is likely to lead to difficulty with European powers. It is further rumored that England's warlike preparations will continue in view thereof, and that the surrender of Mason and Slidell are not the whole of England's demand.

The steamship Asia will sail at 6 P. M. for New York. Papers between the Ætna and Asia contain no real news.

A Paris correspondent says the belief that hostilities between England and the United States will not be arrested has become more general. The admiralty had been notified that instructions had been sent to protect British shipping in India and China seas.

PARIS, Dec. 21.

Rentes closed to-day firm at 67f 35c.

The Temps asserts that a dispatch has been received from Seward saying that the American government is ready to guarantee every facility to neutrals compatible with rights of belligerents, and would give any satisfaction in the case of the infraction of any rule that had been adopted. This dispatch was dated before the Trent affair, but it is considered as showing the peaceful inclinations of the American government.

M. Fould maintained the correctness of the late report to the emperor, and said that it caused a rise in the public funds, which would have continued but for the apprehension of war between England and America.

The Observer (ministerial organ) says England wishes for peace, but will gain by war, as it enables her to rectify her American frontiers, open the southern ports and give a lesson to the United States.

LIVERPOOL, 21st.—Cotton in port 581,500 bales. Half of it is American.

Flour tending downwards. Wheat irregular.

NEW YORK, Dec. 31.

The London Morning Post reports the instructions to Lord Lyons combine such judiciousness and temperance of procedure that the American most tender of his pride will be unable to complain of England's course as menacing or haughty.

A telegram of the 20th inst., from Berne, Switzerland, contains the following important announcement: The federal council has received the circular addressed by the French government to the European powers, declaring that the arrest of Mason and Slidell was contrary to the principles which are regarded as essential to the security of neutral flags.

The circular states that the French government deemed it necessary to submit this opinion to the cabinet at Washington in order to determine it to make concessions which the French government considered indispensable.

A large meeting of officers and masters in the mercantile marine had been held at London, and they had resolved to heartily co-operate with the government whenever their services might be required.

The Shipping Gazette says that either our merchantmen must be armed, or the government must detail a number of the fastest and most efficient ships to match American privateers.

M. Cobden, in a letter declining to attend a public meeting at Brighton, strongly advocates arbitration in the American dispute, and says that the object of all national men and true patriots should be to enforce principles of mediation in the government on the terms of agreement made at Paris congress. He thinks that no question can be more within the scope of the Paris resolution than the pending one, and the true test of the disposition of American people will be the expressed willingness on the part of England to resort, if necessary, to mediation. Should such a conciliatory step meet with no better response than a desire by America to insult and wrong England, all the powers of Europe would forthwith be sought on England's side.

Mr. Cobden says that the cry for peace is hardly enough at the present moment.—What is required is peace on principles of impartial justice, and this can be obtained through an impartial arbitration.

The London Times editorially diputes the arguments of Mr. Cobden, and says that the course he advocates would by no means tend to the preservation of peace, either in the present instance or for the future.

The Times says, we insist upon knowing clearly whether we are in a reign of war or peace.

If the seizure of Mason and Slidell was an act of the American government originally, or if it be adopted by them now, it is an act of war which is to be encountered by war. If they disown it, they must prove their sincerity by repairing it. It is impossible to negotiate in the former case, and the latter has not yet arisen. There is, therefore, no room for arbitration.

The Daily News, while asserting that England will be satisfied with nothing short of full satisfaction for her violated rights, says it would obviously be harsh, violent and unjust to deny the American government all right of replying, and positively to refuse to hear what she has to urge on the legal points at issue. Should there be any difficulty at Washington in at once meeting England's demands, a little frank intercourse and explanation between the two governments would in all probability remove it, and this would be by far the best and most dignified and honorable way of settling the dispute. Failing in this, it is for America to propose arbitration, and England would not be justified in refusing such invitation. The article concludes by denouncing the tone, menace and insults, adopted by some of the journals.

The Daily News, in another article, defends the north from the charges of the Times, that the war was brutalizing the northern states. It also justifies the projected blockade of Charleston and Savannah by the stone ships as a bona fide operation of warfare.

The London Herald bitterly criticizes Mr. Seward's foreign correspondence—charging him with insolence, folly and wickedness, as wanton and mischievous as any that history records.

The Times also has an editorial on Mr. Seward's despatches, and treats them with ridicule, and says Mr. Seward assumes to instruct the entire human race, as to the origin of the rights and prospects of the war in America, and has confident assurances as to the dimensions and duration of the war.

Movements were taking place between the government and the authorities of Liverpool leading to the defences of that port.

The Post's Paris correspondence says that neither France nor Russia have taken any steps as mediators.

The Paris Patria, in enumerating the five French vessels at New York, says others are shortly to be sent there.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 31.

A special to the Commercial from Indianapolis says there are rumors of a fight in Kentucky, to-day.

Gen. Buel ordered to Green river a regiment of fusileers and a regiment of light artillery before he went forward.

Buckner's cavalry were yesterday within a short distance of our pickets, and it is supposed he intended attacking McCook in force, and destroy Green river bridge and retire. The regulars were thrown across the bridge early yesterday morning.

LOUISVILLE, Dec. 31.

The Northern Bank of Kentucky has suspended specie payment.

A doubtful rumor prevails that Cave City Hotel was burned by secessionists to-day.

Exciting rumors of a general engagement in southern Kentucky all day, but is generally discredited now, no notice having been received at headquarters.

The People's Bank at Bowling Green has been re-organized at Louisville by a new board of directors, who assume the direction of the bank to-morrow.

To-Day's Report.

AFTERNOON DESPATCHES.

BOSTON, Jan. 2, 1862.

The gale at Boston last night was the most severe known for years.

FORTRESS MONROE, Jan. 1.

Capts. Shelling, Leib and Mason of the 79th New York regiment, Lieut. W. Dickinson, 3d regiment of infantry, U. S. A., Lieut. J. W. Hart, 20th Indiana regiment, and Corporal Thomas McDowell of the 79th New York, arrived here last night by a flag of truce from Norfolk. They are of the 250 to be released in exchange for an equal number who were sent to Richmond last week. A great improvement in the treatment of prisoners is said to have taken place within the last two weeks. The above named soldiers go to Baltimore to-night, on their way to their homes. The remainder of the number to be released are expected to-morrow afternoon, and a number of our wounded, making a total of 284 to be released, are expected in a few days.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 2.

We are happy to say that at no time has Gen. McClellan been dangerously ill. He is rapidly recovering from a severe cold taken at Gen. Porter's last review. He is attending to all important business and will be out in a few days.

PROVIDENCE, Jan. 2.

The British steam gun boat Prialdo left here at 5 p. m. yesterday, with Mason and Slidell and their Secretaries on board.

Wind blew a hurricane all night.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 2.

Dispatches received at headquarters announce the capture of the notorious Jeff. Owens, Col. Jones and 50 of their bridge burning gang, near Martinsburg, Audraine county, by Gen. Scheffield, commander of the state militia, and various guerilla bands along the north Missouri railroad, have been pretty thoroughly scattered. Six regiments of federal troops have left Otterville and Tipton for Weston, on an unknown expedition.

The Markets.

NEW YORK, Jan. 2.

Flour receipts 7255 bbls. Market quiet and firm. Sales—6000 bbls. $5,40a5,50.—Superfine western, 5,70a5,90; common to medium extra western, 6,00a6,10.

Wheat receipts 11,030 bushels. Market very firm and quiet; sales, 2,500 bu., N.W. club at $1,32.

AFFAIRS AT PENSACOLA.—At Pensacola there has been no firing since the 23d of November. Wilson's Zouaves have been placed within the entrenchments and the 75th New York, just arrived, has taken the camp of the former. The force on the island, with the 75th, numbers little less than twenty-five hundred men. Gen. Bragg has received reinforcements since the bombardment of his forts and batteries on the 22d and 23d of November ultimo, and the number under his command is estimated at ten to twelve thousand. Some active movements are in progress, but they do not apparently indicate any immediate attack upon our positions.

Fort McRae is in about the same state of dilapidation in which the guns of Fort Pickens left it at the close of the bombardment. Some men have been observed attempting apparently to make some repairs, effecting, however, little, if any progress.—The rebels do not occupy the fort with troops, though every morning they hoist the rebel flag, and take it down again at night.

There are no evidences whatever of injury to the walls of Fort Pickens by the bombardment. A man with a pickax could do more damage in ten minutes than the rebels did in two days. Yet for a considerable distance on either side of Pickens, and for a mile beyond, fragments of shells are strewn in great profusion. A round shot weighing 128 pounds, which had passed over the fort, was found by the soldiers, and is now in possession of First Officer Blake, of the Baltic, to whom it was presented by Major Arnold. It was fired from a ten-inch gun. A fragment of a shell which hit the magazine of Fort Pickens, doing, however, no damage, is also in the possession of one of the officers of the Baltic.

Where the village of Warrenton stood, near the navy yard, the chimneys of some of the houses are standing alone like sentinels. A few detached buildings are not consumed.

It is now understood that nearly if not quite all the positions of the rebel forces are under command of Col. Brown's guns, and that he awaits reinforcements to re-open the fire and clear out the rebels.

Vesuvius is again in a state of violent pertubation. At last accounts it had opened fire with unusual vivacity, and was bombarding the adjacent villages with a will.—The pretty town of Terre del Greco, between Naples and Pompeii, was threatened with destruction.

The Detroit Free Press mentions something we had never heard before, viz: that the Second Michigan regiment has been promoted in a body to the regular army, and is now the "Twenty-first Regiment, U. S. A." This, we believe, is the first promotion of the kind that has occurred during the war, and is a high and deserved honor.

Institute for the Blind.

We request the attention of our cotemporaries to the following circular. There is room for a larger number of pupils than is now receiving instruction in the Institute, and surely the benefits of the education provided for are too valuable to be neglected or refused by the parents or guardians of the unfortunate children entrusted to their care.

WIS. INST. FOR THE EDUCATION OF THE BLIND,
JANESVILLE, Jan. 1st, 1862.

The thirteenth session of this institution began on the second of Sept. last, and is going on prosperously, more pupils being in attendance than at any previous time.

The institution is entirely supported by the state, which aims to furnish here for the blind of suitable age, the education that she provides in the common school for her more favored children, and to give them besides, by a knowledge of some mechanical art or by skill in music, the means of future self-maintenance and usefulness.

The recent completion of the main building affords room for a larger number of pupils; and there are, doubtless, in the state many blind youth entitled to its advantages, who are allowing the proper time for instruction to pass by unimproved.

Parents or friends of such persons are invited to correspond with the undersigned respecting their admission.

THOMAS H. LITTLE, Supt.

ARTILLERY PRACTICE.—The Racine Advocate says that Capt. Carpenter arrived in that city last Saturday with a fine company of 95 men, comprising the 8th battery.

Capt. Foster has done some excellent artillery practice. The target was an iceberg some ten feet long and three or four feet high, that had formed on the end of a protection pier off the point near Michigan street, the distance from the camp being about a mile. It was very soon shorn of its dimensions, several balls hitting it fairly.

Measles still prevail in camp, but not of an alarming type.

The arrangement recently made by which the men do their own cooking, seems to please them. They succeed in getting up some astonishing dishes, according to their own account. It will at any rate prepare them to encounter a campaign in the field better than the old plan.

THE RAREY EXHIBITION.—After the exposition of his theory, Mr. Rarey introduced what struck the audience as a good subject—a furious black stallion, who had no sooner touched the platform than he began rearing, plunging and displaying his heels high in the air in a manner that was truly entertaining to all present. Considerable merriment was occasioned by this displayal of devilment on the part of the seemingly irrepressible stallion, and at the same time an apprehension was manifest that Mr. Rarey, unless he was careful, might get his brains kicked out. That gentleman, however, showed perfect confidence. After waltzing about the stage awhile with his partner, he succeeded in persuading him to submit his head to the soothing touch of his human hand. Then the tamer ventured to touch the fore leg of the animal, but this presumption was angrily resented, and another brilliant display by the hind legs of the animal, was the immediate consequence. Presently, however, the lecturer succeeded in exciting friendly feeling by lifting one of the fore feet, which was immediately strapped up so that not much more could be done in the way of kicking. The other fore foot was taken up, and the horse lay upon his side. After some loud snorting and some spasmodic action of the hind legs, the conquered animal seemed to conclude that all was over. Presently the straps were removed and Mr. Rarey, with perfect safety, placed his hands upon the same heels which a few moments before had been darting like zig zag lightnings in the air. All sorts of personal liberties were taken with him without resistance. He was subjugated.—Chicago Post.

ARTEMUS WARD.—The New York Times in speaking of the lecture which A. Ward, Esq., (Mr. Charles F. Browne,) is now delivering at the east, says:

"Mr. Browne is a tall, slim, and gentlemanly appearing young man, rather careful in his dress than otherwise, and gifted with an imperturbable expression of face, which adds very materially to the effect of the droll philosophies that are propounded by him. The "Children in the Wood" is a title skillfully made use of by the lecturer as a medium for saying a great many spicy and smart things upon the current topics of the day. Every now and then he alludes to the title, as having no immediate reference to something that has been spun out by him, the effect of which, aided by the droll solemnity with which it is uttered, convulses the audience with laughter. By the gift of nature, Mr. Brown is a commedan. His delivery is provokingly deliberate, and there is a subdued humor visible in every expression of his face. The reading was a decided success, and will be repeated in the same room on the evening of the 2d of January.

By careful examination it has been ascertained beyond doubt, that nine-tenths of all the sickness in camp is caused by sleeping upon the ground; and the neglect being susceptible of improvement causes much dissatisfaction among the soldiers.

A SAD FACT OF WAR.—No person is living in the town of Belmont, Missouri, where a battle was fought some time since, the stench from dead horses preventing people from living within two miles of the town.

Jessup's Grain Drill.

SOME of the peculiarities of the Jessup Grain Drill made by

R. J. Richardson, Janesville.

It is simple in its construction. It will be firmly and neatly made. It will distribute the grain very accurately, either with slow or fast speed, or on rough or smooth ground. It can be arranged to sow any quantity desired, and will surely sow within one pint per acre of what you arrange to sow. When the team stops it stops distributing, without touching. The teeth are seven inches apart instead of eight and nine inches, as other drills are. It will sow wheat, oats, barley, rye, corn, peas, or broom corn, but the gear must be changed for the different kinds of grain. It takes five minutes to change the gear. Although not made for a broad cast sower, it will sow all kinds of grain grown in this climate as well and evenly as any machine made. It costs from ten to fifteen dollars less than any drill made elsewhere of the same size. It is made at home where it can be repaired if necessary.

The following are a few of the parties who have used the drill, and all think it good enough:

DAILY GAZETTE.

Correspondence of the Cincinnati Gazette.

LOUISVILLE, Dec. 27.

Many enthusiastic gentlemen expect an advance movement of our troops on this line toward Nashville, within a very few days. I have even heard of parties betting that the federal flag would wave over Nashville in two weeks after Christmas. But I must confess frankly, I can scarce believe there will ever be a general advance of any portion of the national army. While it cannot be doubted that the general commanding the department of Cumberland desires to advance, the conviction is fast settling upon the minds of those who keep in view the whole conduct of the war, that no forward movement of magnitude is to be allowed. An inactive army is too profitable to public sharpers, to be thus ruthlessly put in process of liquidation. What if a few enthusiastic simpletons in East Tennessee should have to pull hemp for their madcap devotion to "the government of the Union?" They should have acted with more dignity and less precipitation. They might have known that we could afford them no protection till we had fully occupied the soil of our ally, Kentucky. Those East Tennesseeans were from the beginning so intractable, that they did not adopt the neutrality platform begotten and brought forth in Kentucky. They attempted to draw near to the federal government irreverently, without the offices of a mediator, and if they are consumed, like those who put strange fire upon the altar, is it not the natural result of their own rashness? Then, there are rabid Union precipitators in Kentucky, who have prematurely avowed their undivided allegiance to the old United States, rejecting all mediation, and have been exiled from their homes. Does any one, of respectability and dignity, suppose the equilibrium of great affairs is to be disturbed by their mad pranks?

THE REBEL COLONEL STANTON, ETC.

A gentleman from Danville assures me that Col. Sidney Stanton, the Tennessee rebel whom one of your correspondents reported as falling from his horse during a skirmish with General Schoeff's pickets near Somerset, was certainly killed. He says he conversed with a highly respectable minister of the Gospel—an acquaintance of Stanton's—who declared the rebel colonel was carried past his residence in a dying condition.

Nashville papers of the 13th inst. mention the death of Joel M. Smith, Esq., of that city, for many years U. S. Pension Agent, and city treasurer of Nashville.—None of their papers which I have seen, give any account of the third explosion of their percussion cap factory, in Edgefield. It did explode the third time, however, about a month since, killing a man, as usual. Cap making is a bazardous business with the Nashvilleans.

CROSSING RIVERS.

My Danville informant states that Zollicoffer was four days in crossing Cumberland river, and that he is now in an exceedingly strong position on this side, with 6,000 men. On the other side he has about 2,000, in a well selected camp, intrenched. What would be thought of our army, if it should cross a river under such circumstances? We can scarcely cross a creek without a bridge of the most improved style. And then, we have the most approved slow bridge builders, warranted not to build one in less than a month, for love or money. Some antiquarians are searching the early history of the world, to find out how men crossed rivers, and even arms of the sea, in olden time, when there were no railroad bridges.—When we get down into Georgia, (?) we shall not be able to advance more than ten miles in six months, as the rebels will be certain to give us a month's work wherever there is a bridge. I was told the venerable father of Gen. McCook offered, the other day, to take charge of the railroad bridge being built over Green river, and to finish it in eight days. I have no doubt the brave old gentleman would keep his word. But if he be not placed in charge, it is impossible to guess when the bridge will be finished. I have heard about forty times it would be done in a few days, but the latest report always puts its completion further off than earlier ones. It is said a wagon road is being cut out from the southern bank of Green river to Cave City. Here would be a fine opportunity to set contraband "niggers" at work; but I presume the mud-sills and "lop-eared Dutch" will do the business, and "let the negroes alone."

The New York World's Washington dispatch of the 27th says:

"Gen. Scott has addressed a communication to Mr. Seward, but its contents are unknown to all, save the administration. It is surmised, however, that it relates to the possibility of a war, unless the United States consents not only to the surrender of Mason and Slidell, but to the demands of England in other matters in which the nation has great interest. It is said that the English are determined to pursue their advantage, and, not content with the mere adjustment of the Mason and Slidell difficulty, will demand the settlement of other outstanding disputes between the two countries. English statesmen evidently consider the present an opportune occasion for the purpose. This disposition on the part of England accounts for the improbable rumors which have been afloat here for the past few days, to the effect that England insists upon the re-opening of the Oregon and Northeastern boundary question. For these rumors, there is, of course, no foundation; but the Mexican and Central American questions, and the dispute with regard to the island of San Juan, will now, perhaps, be pressed to a settlement. An intimation has been made that a member of the cabinet would proceed to New York to see General Scott, but this intention is now understood to be overruled.

BOUND TO MARRY.—On Tuesday last a very respectable young couple from the country appeared before a justice of the peace in this city to be married. The fair one did not seem to understand that age had anything to do with marriage, and upon being asked her age said she was sixteen. Under such circumstances the justice refused to marry them without the consent of the girl's parents. The couple started to go out, and when at the door the lady said: "If I am not old enough before the next justice you may call me a tea pot." They soon came before another justice, and when the young lass was asked how old she was, answered—"nineteen years old the 24th day of last March." The answer being satisfactory the knot was soon tied, and the happy couple "went on their way rejoicing."

SINGER & CO.'S

STANDARD MACHINES,

Well known to be the best for

Manufacturing Purposes:

No. 1, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $90,

Reduced to $70.

No. 2, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $100,

Reduced to $75.

Singer's Letter A. Machine,

IS the best Machine in the world for Family Sewing and Light Manufacturing purposes; Price, (with Hemmer,) and beautifully ornamented,

FIFTY DOLLARS.

The Nos. 1 and 2 machines are of great capacity and application for manufacturing purposes.

Our No. 2 machines are especially adapted to all kinds of light and heavy

in Carriage Trimming, Boot and Shoe Making, Harness Making, etc., etc. They are of extra size, with an arm long enough to take under it and stitch the largest sized dashes. There is scarcely any part of a Trimmers' stitching that cannot be better done with them than by hand; so, too, the saving of time and labor is very great. The table under these machines is 24 inches long, and the shuttle will hold six times the usual quantity of thread. The large machines work as fast as small ones.

We would ask for our Letter A machines, the special attention of Vest Makers and Dress Makers, and all those who want machines for Light Manufacturing purposes. They embody the principles of the standard machines, making like them, the interlock stitch, and are destined to be as celebrated for Family Sewing and light manufacturing purposes as our standard machines are for manufacturing purposes in general.

We have always on hand

Hemming Guages, Silk Twist, Linen and Cotton Thread on Spools, Best Machine Oil in Bottles, etc., etc.

We manufacture our own Needles, and would warn all persons using our machines not to buy any others. We know that there are needles of the most inferior quality, at higher prices than we charge for the best. The needles sold by us are manufactured especially for our machines. A bad needle may render the best machine almost useless.

Our customers may rest assured that all our Branch Offices are furnished with the

GENUINE ARTICLE.

In case of small purchases, the money may be sent in postage stamps or bank notes.

☞ Correspondents will please write their names distinctly. It is all important that we should in each case know the post office, county and state.

☞ All persons requiring information about Sewing Machines, their size, prices, working capacities, and the best methods of purchasing, can obtain it by sending to us, or any of our Branch Offices for a copy of which is a beautifully illustrated Pictorial Paper. It will be sent Gratis

I. M. SINGER & CO.'S GAZETTE,

We have made the above Reduction in Prices with the two-fold view of benefitting the public and ourselves. The public have been swindled by spurious machines made in imitation of ours. The metal in them, from the iron casting to the smallest piece, is of poor quality. Their makers have not the means to do their work well. They are hid away in secret places, where it would be impossible to have at their command the proper mechanical appliances. It is only by doing a great business, and having extensive manufacturing establishments, that good machines can be made at moderate prices. The best designed machines, Badly Made, are always liable to get out of order, and are sure to cost considerable trouble and money to keep them in repair.

The qualities to be looked for in a machine are: certainty of correct action at all rates of speed, simplicity of construction, great durability and rapidity of operation, with the least labor. Machines to combine these essential qualities, must be made of the best metal and finished to perfection. We have the ways and means, on a grand scale, to do this.

The purchasers of machines, whose daily bread it may concern, will find that those having the above qualities not only work well at rapid as well as slow rates of speed, but last long in the finest possible working order. Our machines, as made by us, will earn more money with less labor than any others, whether in imitation of ours or not. In fact, they are cheaper than any other machine as a gift.

DAILY GAZETTE.

Correspondence of the Cincinnati Gazette.

LOUISVILLE, Dec. 27.

Many enthusiastic gentlemen expect an advance movement of our troops on this line toward Nashville, within a very few days. I have even heard of parties betting that the federal flag would wave over Nashville in two weeks after Christmas. But I must confess frankly, I can scarce believe there will ever be a general advance of any portion of the national army. While it cannot be doubted that the general commanding the department of Cumberland desires to advance, the conviction is fast settling upon the minds of those who keep in view the whole conduct of the war, that no forward movement of magnitude is to be allowed. An inactive army is too profitable to public sharpers, to be thus ruthlessly put in process of liquidation. What if a few enthusiastic simpletons in East Tennessee should have to pull hemp for their madcap devotion to "the government of the Union?" They should have acted with more dignity and less precipitation. They might have known that we could afford them no protection till we had fully occupied the soil of our ally, Kentucky. Those East Tennesseeans were from the beginning so intractable, that they did not adopt the neutrality platform begotten and brought forth in Kentucky. They attempted to draw near to the federal government irreverently, without the offices of a mediator, and if they are consumed, like those who put strange fire upon the altar, is it not the natural result of their own rashness? Then, there are rabid Union precipitators in Kentucky, who have prematurely avowed their undivided allegiance to the old United States, rejecting all mediation, and have been exiled from their homes. Does any one, of respectability and dignity, suppose the equilibrium of great affairs is to be disturbed by their mad pranks?

THE REBEL COLONEL STANTON, ETC.

A gentleman from Danville assures me that Col. Sidney Stanton, the Tennessee rebel whom one of your correspondents reported as falling from his horse during a skirmish with General Schoeff's pickets near Somerset, was certainly killed. He says he conversed with a highly respectable minister of the Gospel—an acquaintance of Stanton's—who declared the rebel colonel was carried past his residence in a dying condition.

Nashville papers of the 13th inst. mention the death of Joel M. Smith, Esq., of that city, for many years U. S. Pension Agent, and city treasurer of Nashville.—None of their papers which I have seen, give any account of the third explosion of their percussion cap factory, in Edgefield. It did explode the third time, however, about a month since, killing a man, as usual. Cap making is a hazardous business with the Nashvilleans.

CROSSING RIVERS.

My Danville informant states that Zollicoffer was four days in crossing Cumberland river, and that he is now in an exceedingly strong position on this side, with 6,000 men. On the other side he has about 2,000, in a well selected camp, intrenched. What would be thought of our army, if it should cross a river under such circumstances? We can scarcely cross a creek without a bridge of the most improved style. And then, we have the most approved slow bridge builders, warranted not to build one in less than a month, for love or money. Some antiquarians are searching the early history of the world, to find out how men crossed rivers, and even arms of the sea, in olden time, when there were no railroad bridges.—When we get down into Georgia, (?) we shall not be able to advance more than ten miles in six months, as the rebels will be certain to give us a month's work wherever there is a bridge. I was told the venerable father of Gen. McCook offered, the other day, to take charge of the railroad bridge being built over Green river, and to finish it in eight days. I have no doubt the brave old gentleman would keep his word. But if he be not placed in charge, it is impossible to guess when the bridge will be finished. I have heard about forty times it would be done in a few days, but the latest report always puts its completion further off than earlier ones. It is said a wagon road is being cut out from the southern bank of Green river to Cave City. Here would be a fine opportunity to set contraband "niggers" at work; but I presume the mud-sills and "lop-eared Dutch" will do the business, and "let the negroes alone."

The New York World's Washington dispatch of the 27th says:

"Gen. Scott has addressed a communication to Mr. Seward, but its contents are unknown to all, save the administration. It is surmised, however, that it relates to the possibility of a war, unless the United States consents not only to the surrender of Mason and Slidell, but to the demands of England in other matters in which the nation has great interest. It is said that the English are determined to pursue their advantage, and, not content with the mere adjustment of the Mason and Slidell difficulty, will demand the settlement of other outstanding disputes between the two countries. English statesmen evidently consider the present an opportune occasion for the purpose. This disposition on the part of England accounts for the improbable rumors which have been afloat here for the past few days, to the effect that England insists upon the re-opening of the Oregon and Northeastern boundary question. For these rumors, there is, of course, no foundation; but the Mexican and Central American questions, and the dispute with regard to the island of San Juan, will now, perhaps, be pressed to a settlement. An intimation has been made that a member of the cabinet would proceed to New York to see General Scott, but this intention is now understood to be overruled.

BOUND TO MARRY.—On Tuesday last a very respectable young couple from the country appeared before a justice of the peace in this city to be married. The fair one did not seem to understand that age had anything to do with marriage, and upon being asked her age said she was sixteen. Under such circumstances the justice refused to marry them without the consent of the girl's parents. The couple started to go out, and when at the door the lady said: "If I am not old enough before the next justice you may call me a tea pot." They soon came before another justice, and when the young lass was asked how old she was, answered—"nineteen years old the 24th day of last March." The answer being satisfactory the knot was soon tied, and the happy couple "went on their way rejoicing." Beaver Dam Argus.

—OF—

SINGER & CO.'S

STANDARD MACHINES,

Well known to be the best for

Manufacturing Purposes!

No. 1, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $90,

Reduced to $70.

No. 2, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $100,

Reduced to $75.

Singer's Letter A Machine,

IS the best Machine in the world for Family Sewing and Light Manufacturing purposes; Price, (with Hemmer,) and beautifully ornamented,

FIFTY DOLLARS.

The Nos. 1 and 2 machines are of great capacity and application for manufacturing purposes.

Our No 3 machines are especially adapted to all kinds of light and heavy

LEATHER WORK,

In Carriage Trimming, Boot and Shoe Making, Harness Making, etc., etc. They are of extra size, with an arm long enough to take under it and stitch the largest sized gaiters. There is scarcely any part of a Trimmers' stitching that cannot be better done with them than by hand; so too, the saving of time and labor is very great. The table under these machines is 24 inches long, and the shuttle will hold six times the usual quantity of thread. The large machines work as fast as small ones.

We would ask for our Letter A machines, the special attention of Vest Makers and Dress Makers, and all those who want machines for Light Manufacturing purposes. They embody the principles of the standard machines, making like them, the interlock stitch, and are destined to be as celebrated for Family Sewing and light manufacturing purposes as our standard machines are for manufacturing purposes in general.

We have always on hand

Hemming Guages, Silk Twist, Linen and Cotton Thread on Spools, Best Machine Oil in Bottles, etc., etc.

We manufacture our own Needles, and would warn all persons using our machines not to buy any others. We know that there are needles sold of the most inferior quality, at higher prices than we charge for the best. The needles sold by us are manufactured especially for our machines. A bad needle may render the best machine almost useless.

Our customers may rest assured that all our Branch Offices are furnished with the

GENUINE ARTICLE.

In case of small purchases, the money may be sent in postage stamps or bank notes

☞ Correspondents will please write their names distinctly. It is all important that we should in each case know the post office, county and state.

☞ All persons requiring information about Sewing Machines, their size, prices, working capacities, and the best methods of purchasing, can obtain it by sending to us, or any of our Branch Offices for a copy of which is a beautifully illustrated Pictorial Paper. It will be sent Gratis

I. M. SINGER & CO.'S GAZETTE,

We have made the above Reduction in Prices with the two-fold view of benefiting the public and ourselves. The public have been swindled by spurious machines made in imitation of ours. The metal in them, from the iron casting to the smallest piece, is of poor quality. Their makers have not the means to do their work well They are hid away in secret places, where it would be impossible to have at their command the proper mechanical appliances. It is only by doing a great business, and having extensive manufacturing establishments, that good machines can be made at moderate prices The best designed machines, Badly Made, are always liable to get out of order, and are sure to cost considerable trouble and money to keep them in repair

The qualities to be looked for in a machine are: certainty of correct action at all rates of speed, simplicity of construction, great durability and rapidity of operation, with the least labor. Machines to combine these essential qualities, must be made of the best metal and finished to perfection. We have the ways and means, on a grand scale, to do this.

The purchasers of machines, whom this daily bread it may concern, will find that those having the above qualities not only work well at rapid as well as slow rates of speed, but last long in the finest possible working order. Our machines, as made by us, will earn more money with less labor than any others, whether in imitation of ours or not In fact, they are cheaper than any other machine as a gift.

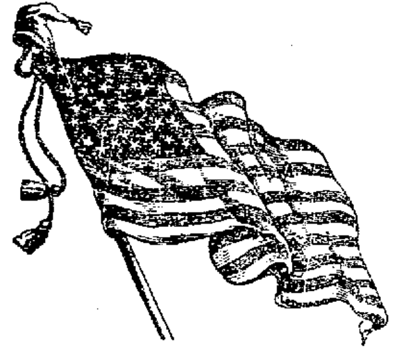
Official Paper of the City.



Forever float that standard sheet!
Where breathes the foe but falls before us?
With Freedom's soil beneath our feet,
And Freedom's banner streaming o'er us!

Easily Satisfied.

The Milwaukee Sentinel thinks we are restive and dissatisfied with things in general, in consequence, we suppose, of our plain way of speaking in relation to the want of progress the in war, and the aimlessness of our national policy.

The Sentinel can stand a good deal of grief. In fact it isn't troubled about anything. "Whatever is, is right," with that paper.

If the generals all move at once, it is exactly what it expected—in truth, it is the plan that the Sentinel originated.

If one general starts out alone, and gets surrounded and killed, that is a part of a great strategic plan, which the Sentinel sees through, has seen it all the time, and the public is cautioned to wait a little, and they will see it too.

The Sentinel is in favor of arming the slaves. It has urged this plan from the first. The secretary of war is right.

The president thinks arming the slaves is not a good thing, and the Milwaukee Sentinel thinks so too. The secretary of war is wrong.

The arrest of Mason and Slidell was right—a brave thing—Capt. Wilkes deserves the highest honor. As the arrest of Mason and Slidell was wrong, according to Mr. Seward, "there is no dishonor in giving them up." It is a good thing to give up Mason and Slidell.

The Sentinel was in favor of the principle ot Fremont's proclamation, and also thought the president right in modifying it. But the Sentinel was opposed to Fremont's proclamation. After the president had signified his disapprobation of it, it opposed all proclamations.

The Sentinel is opposed to any advance of our armies at this time. Let us wait till Washington is safe, and until McClellan is ready. If an advance should be made in the course of the next year, the Sentinel will tell us it was in favor of the advance being made, just at the time it was made, and that the generals carried out its plans, exactly.

Since the suspension of specie payments by the eastern banks, the Sentinel pronounces it a wise act, "from which will result a more liberal advancement of credits"—that is, speculation. On the other hand, it opposes the suspension of specie payments by our own banks, because it will encourage speculation. When our banks suspend the Sentinel will pronounce it "all right—the wisest thing they could do."

So goes on our easy friends of the Sentinel—"happy as clams"—satisfied with everything. With them there is no rebellion—no trouble with England—money market all right—the army moving just fast enough. In fact, with a deluge roaring around it, with head just above water, the Sentinel would pronounce it "not much of a shower after all." Exactly the rain we expected—nothing more. It was our plan and Noah's to have just such a sprinkle.

Perhaps it is right to have just such hold-back, conservative kind of papers as the Sentinel to balance and check the too great tendency to go-ahead on the part of other newspapers, which desire to have things smashed up immediately, when they go wrong. There is, we is told, two principles in physical nature which oppose each other in this way, and why not in morals and politics also? Let the Sentinel go on in its slow, "neither-hot-nor-cold" policy, and tolerate those who are more restive, if it can. It may serve a purpose in this way. See Revelations, chap. 3, v. 15-16.

We do not know how patriotic Mason and Slidell are, but they must be very patriotic to feel particularly felicitous over the dissatisfaction expressed all over the South at their release from imprisonment. This dissatisfaction does not argue that any essential results were expected from their mission. It does argue that the forlorn hope of the rebels is European intervention on their behalf. It is pretty certain that one of two things will happen to them within a brief space of time. Overthrow and rout of their armies, or European intervention on their behalf.—Chicago Times.

The loyal people of the free states who are furnishing the 600,000 men and $2,000,000 a day to carry on the war against rebellion have long entertained the opinion that the rebellion must be speedily suppressed, or European nations would intervene in behalf of the seceded states. It is to prevent such a calamity as foreign interference that the people are desirous of an energetic prosecution of the war, and their anxiety on this point leads to all the complaints against the inactivity of the federal government.—They believe, moreover, that a tender regard for the preservation of slavery, or a senseless fear of the outcry about "abolitionism," is restraining the arm of the government and paralysing the energies of the army and navy. They prefer the preservation of the Union to the preservation of slavery, and demand the life of the former even if it is necessary to exterminate the latter to accomplish the more important object. Are they unreasonable ?

Found.—A bunch of keys which the owner can have by applying at this office.

More Demands from England.

The rumor which is brought by the passengers of the Asia, that England intends to make further demands on us, in relation to the blockade, will surprise no one. The surrender of Mason and Slidell will only encourage further acts of aggression. It is useless to speculate about the action of foreign nations towards us—our duty now is to prepare ourselves for the conflict, as it will certainly come if we are unprepared. Thorough preparation is the only way to prevent a foreign war, and we ought to enter upon the subject of self-defence with the vigor and energy which the importance of the crisis demands. Every furnace should make rifled cannon, and every ship-yard should build vessels of war. If we delay, our loss will be immense. War must become our occupation. Why, then, not make a business of it without wasting precious time?

Correspondence of the Daily Gazette.

Thoughts for Young Men.

Messrs. Editors:—With your permission, believing that many young men are in the daily habit of reading your journal, I will furnish a few brief articles for their special consideration; and I think young women may derive some benefit from their perusal. If I can make these thoughts suggestive; if I can induce habits of reflection, and persuade young persons to cherish desires and adopt means for general improvement, my object will be accomplished.

A suitable theme with which to commence may be

THE AIMS OF LIFE.

The young man should start out in his career of life with a worthy and noble object in view. Some well defined purpose should be formed; some proper course of action should be plainly marked out. Like the careful builder, he should work to certain "plans and specifications." He should be sure to commence right; he should lay a good foundation; avoiding the drifting sands, he should dig deep, if necessary, and make the solid rock his basis; in this case the superstructure which he may erect, shall be substantial and lasting; the storms and tempests of time shall beat upon it in vain. An aimless life—a life without a purpose, cannot be otherwise than useless and miserable. Barren of high purposes and praiseworthy deeds, it must of necessity be barren of anything like rational enjoyment.—Such a life may be likened to a ship at sea, destitute of rudder, compass, or chart—drifting hither and thither at the mercy of winds and waves! He that leads an aimless life is merely a drone in the great hive of humanity. The drone among bees may and in all probability does, subserve some useful design in the busy colony of honey-makers; but of the human drone the most that can be said, is that he is a nuisance, a pest to society. Better not live at all than live to no good purpose. Make up your minds, young men, to do something. Form some definite plans for future action; make choice of some honorable calling. If agriculture, the mechanic arts, or any of the learned professions, so called, shall engage your attention, enter with zeal and spirit upon your favorite pursuits, with a determination to excel, if possible, at least to make good progress in the calling of your choice.

Permit me here to suggest that it would be well for you to take into consideration your ability, or the prospect of ultimate fitness, for the particular post of duty which you feel inclined to occupy. You should exercise your judgment, and seek advice from those whose age and experience qualify them to give it, in regard to your choice of an occupation. When the selection is made, let your motto be onward. Let your aims be high; let all your designs and efforts be such as integrity, virtue and religion may approve. Adhere unflinchingly to the resolution that you will succeed only by worthy means.

I wish you to note particularly what I said in regard to the character of your calling. I made use of the word honorable as the qualifying term. Enter upon no business the pursuit of which will oblige you to disregard any moral obligation. Rum-selling, for instance, is disreputable and degrading; it will be impossible for you to follow it and maintain at the same time a conscience void of offense toward God and men. Shun this and all other unworthy pursuits.

"To plow and to sow, to reap and to mow," to enter upon some scientific, mechanical, or professional vocation, will not subject you to moral censure.

These suggestions must suffice on the aims of life. W.

Jan. 1st, 1862.

Admitting the general diffusion of the arts of reading and writing among the people, there is a special ignorance of any thing but American notions which is very astonishing. I may mention in proof of this that I have received several letters requesting me to appear in public for the aid of benevolent or literary societies, the writers of which were good enough either to elevate me to the peerage, or were laboring under the delusion that the noble earl at the head of the foreign office was seeking relaxation from the cares of his department by acting as special correspondent in the United States. These letters were written by secretaries of associations or by people who were literary enough to keep collections of autographs.—Russell's London Times Letter.

Good for Russell! After our people get a few more such surly rebuffs, we hope they will get over what seems an almost irresistable propensity to toady to every inflated foreigner who comes among us.

☞ We learn by a private letter from Sulphur Springs, Mo., that a member of the 11th Wisconsin regiment was shot not long since by one of our own sentinels, for not giving the countersign when required.

Alarming!—A new disease is said to have broken out in Washington, under the operation of which two patriots have paid back to the government stolen money.

If this disease should attack all who may be made subjects of it, there would be a greater mortality than from all other diseases in the camp. We hope its ravages may not be confined to Washington.

BY TELEGRAPH.

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE,
Office in Union Passenger Depot.

Last Night's Report.

Philadelphia, Dec. 31.

A private dispatch received here mentions as among the killed at Paducah, Capt. Albert Baker of this city. He belonged to a Kentucky regiment raised near Frankfort. The dispatch gives no particulars of the battle.

New York, Dec. 31.

A private dispatch received from Washington states that Gen. McClellan, on investigating the specification of charges against Brig. Gen. Benham, has ordered the latter released from arrest, and he is to be ordered at once to duty.

Otterville, Mo., Dec. 31.

One of our men captured by the rebels near Clinton and carried to Springfield has just returned, having left that place on Christmas. He says Price, with 8,000 men had taken all the houses in Springfield for his troops, turning women and children into the streets. He had unloaded his wagons and was making preparations for a long stay. The men of Arkansas refused to allow Price to enter that state with any other troops than those regularly enlisted in the confederate service, and he had only 1,500 men from Arkansas in that service. The country north of Springfield was full of men returning from Price's army, who said if they were permitted to return home and take the oath of allegiance Price would be left with only his his regular confederate troops.

Since Gen. Pope's rapid operations last week there is perfect quiet in all the region between the Missouri and Osage rivers, not a rumor of rebel camps or squads being heard.

Halifax, Dec. 31.

Passengers by the Asia report a rumor that the blockade of Charleston harbor with stone is likely to lead to difficulty with European powers. It is further rumored that England's warlike preparations will continue in view thereof, and that the surrender of Mason and Slidell are not the whole of England's demand.

The steamship Asia will sail at 6 P. M. for New York. Papers between the Ætna and Asia contain no real news.

A Paris correspondent says the belief that hostilities between England and the United States will not be arrested has become more general. The admiralty had been notified that instructions had been sent to protect British shipping in India and China seas.

Paris, Dec. 21.

Rentes closed to-day firm at 67f 35c.

The Temps asserts that a dispatch has been received from Seward saying that the American government is ready to guarantee every facility to neutrals compatible with rights of belligerents, and would give any satisfaction in the case of the infraction of any rule that had been adopted. This dispatch was dated before the Trent affair, but it is considered as showing the peaceful inclinations of the American government.

M. Fould maintained the correctness of the late report to the emperor, and said that it caused a rise in the public funds, which would have continued but for the apprehension of war between England and America.

The Observer (ministerial organ) says England wishes for peace, but will gain by war, as it enables her to rectify her American frontiers, open the southern ports and give a lesson to the United States.

Liverpool, 21st.—Cotton in port 581,500 bales. Half of it is American.

Flour tending downwards. Wheat irregalar.

New York, Dec. 31.

The London Morning Post reports the instructions to Lord Lyons combine such judiciousness and temperance of procedure that the American most tender of his pride will be unable to complain of England's course as menacing or haughty.

A telegram of the 20th inst., from Berne, Switzerland, contains the following important announcement: The federal council has received the circular addressed by the French government to the European powers, declaring that the arrest of Mason and Slidell was contrary to the principles which are regarded as essential to the security of neutral flags.

The circular states that the French government deemed it necessary to submit this opinion to the cabinet at Washington in order to determine it to make concessions which the French government considered indispensable.

A large meeting of officers and masters in the mercantile marine had been held at London, and they had resolved to heartily co-operate with the government whenever their services might be required.

The Shipping Gazette says that either our merchantmen must be armed, or the government must detail a number of the fastest and most efficient ships to match American privateers.

M. Cobden, in a letter declining to attend a public meeting at Brighton, strongly advocates arbitration in the American dispute, and says that the object of all national men and true patriots should be to enforce principles of mediation in the government on the terms of agreement made at Paris congress. He thinks that no question can be more within the scope of the Paris resolution than the pending one, and the true test of the disposition of American people will be the expressed willingness on the part of England to resort, if necessary, to mediation. Should such a conciliatory step meet with no better response than a desire by America to insult and wrong England, all the powers of Europe would forthwith be sought on England's side.

Mr. Cobden says that the cry for peace is hardly enough at the present moment.—What is required is peace on principles of impartial justice, and this can be obtained through an impartial arbitration.

The London Times editorially diputes the arguments of Mr. Cobden, and says that the course he advocates would by no means tend to the preservation of peace, either in the present instance or for the future.

The Times says, we insist upon knowing clearly whether we are in a reign of war or peace.

If the seizure of Mason and Slidell was an act of the American government originally, or if it be adopted by them now, it is an act of war which is to be encountered by war. If they disown it, they must prove their sincerity by repairing it. It is impossible to negotiate in the former case, and the latter has not yet arisen. There is, therefore, no room for arbitration.

The Daily News, while asserting that England will be satisfied with nothing short of full satisfaction for her violated rights, says it would obviously be harsh, violent and unjust to deny the American government all right of replying, and positively to refuse to hear what she has to urge on the legal points at issue. Should there be any difficulty at Washington in at once meeting England's demands, a little frank intercourse and explanation between the two governments would in all probability remove it, and this would be by far the best and most dignified and honorable way of settling the dispute. Failing in this, it is for America to propose arbitration, and England would not be justified in refusing such invitation. The article concludes by denouncing the tone, menace and insults, adopted by some of the journals.

The Daily News, in another article, defends the north from the charges of the Times, that the war was brutalizing the northern states. It also justifies the projected blockade of Charleston and Savannah by the stone ships as a bona fide operation of warfare.

The London Herald bitterly criticizes Mr. Seward's foreign correspondence—charging him with insolence, folly and wickedness, as wanton and mischievous as any that history records.

The Times also has an editorial on Mr. Seward's despatches, and treats them with ridicule, and says Mr. Seward assumes to instruct the entire human race, as to the origin of the rights and prospects of the war in America, and has confident assurances as to the dimensions and duration of the war.

Movements were taking place between the government and the authorities of Liverpool leading to the defences of that port.

The Post's Paris correspondence says that neither France nor Russia have taken any steps as mediators.

The Paris Patria, in enumerating the five French vessels at New York, says others are shortly to be sent there.

Cincinnati, Dec. 31.

A special to the Commercial from Indianapolis says there are rumors of a fight in Kentucky, to-day.

Gen. Buel ordered to Green river a regiment of fusileers and a regiment of light artillery before he went forward.

Buckner's cavalry were yesterday within a short distance of our pickets, and it is supposed he intended attacking McCook in force, and destroy Green river bridge and retire. The regulars were thrown across the bridge early yesterday morning.

Louisville, Dec. 31.

The Northern Bank of Kentucky has suspended specie payment.

A doubtful rumor prevails that Cave City Hotel was burned by secessionists to-day.

Exciting rumors of a general engagement in southern Kentucky all day, but is generally discredited now, no notice having been received at headquarters.

The People's Bank at Bowling Green has been re-organized at Louisville by a new board of directors, who assume the direction of the bank to-morrow.

To-Day's Report.

AFTERNOON DESPATCHES.

Boston, Jan. 2, 1862.

The gale at Boston last night was the most severe known for years.

Fortress Monroe, Jan. 1.

Capts. Shelling, Leib and Mason of the 79th New York regiment, Lieut. W. Dickinson, 3d regiment of infantry, U. S. A., Lieut. J. W. Hart, 20th Indiana regiment, and Corporal Thomas McDowell of the 79th New York, arrived here last night by a flag of truce from Norfolk. They are of the 250 to be released in exchange for an equal number who were sent to Richmond last week. A great improvement in the treatment of prisoners is said to have taken place within the last two weeks. The above named soldiers go to Baltimore to-night, on their way to their homes. The remainder of the number to be released are expected to-morrow afternoon, and a number of our wounded, making a total of 284 to be released, are expected in a few days.

Washington, Jan. 2.

We are happy to say that at no time has Gen. McClellan been dangerously ill. He is rapidly recovering from a severe cold taken at Gen. Porter's last review. He is attending to all important business and will be out in a few days.

Providence, Jan. 2.

The British steam gun boat Prialdo left here at 5 p. m. yesterday, with Mason and Slidell and their Secretaries on board.

Wind blew a hurricane all night.

St. Louis, Jan. 2.

Dispatches received at headquarters announce the capture of the notorious Jeff. Owens, Col. Jones and 50 of their bridge burning gang, near Martinsburg, Audraine county, by Gen. Schelfield, commander of the state militia, and various guerilla bands along the north Missouri railroad, have been pretty thoroughly scattered. Six regiments of federal troops have left Otterville and Tipton for Weston, on an unknown expedition.

The Markets.

New York, Jan. 2.

Flour receipts 7255 bbls. Market quiet and firm. Sales—6900 bbls. $5,40a5,50.—Superfine western, 5,70a5,90; common to medium extra western, 6,00a6,10.

Wheat receipts 11,080 bushels. Market very firm and quiet; sales, 2,500 bu., N.W. club at $1,32.

Affairs at Pensacola.—At Pensacola there has been no firing since the 23d of November. Wilson's Zouaves have been placed within the entrenchments and the 75th New York, just arrived, has taken the camp of the former. The force on the island, with the 75th, numbers little less than twenty-five hundred men. Gen. Bragg has received reinforcements since the bombardment of his forts and batteries on the 22d and 23d of November ultimo, and the number under his command is estimated at ten to twelve thousand. Some active movements are in progress, but they do not apparently indicate any immediate attack upon our positions.

Fort McRae is in about the same state of dilapidation in which the guns of Fort Pickens left it at the close of the bombardment. Some men have been observed attempting apparently to make some repairs, effecting, however, little, if any progress.—The rebels do not occupy the fort with troops, though every morning they hoist the rebel flag, and take it down again at night.

There are no evidences whatever of injury to the walls of Fort Pickens by the bombardment. A man with a pickax could do more damage in ten minutes than the rebels did in two days. Yet for a considerable distance on either side of Pickens, and for a mile beyond, fragments of shells are strewn in great profusion. A round shot weighing 128 pounds, which had passed over the fort, was found by the soldiers, and is now in possession of First Officer Blake, of the Baltic, to whom it was presented by Major Arnold. It was fired from a ten-inch gun. A fragment of a shell which hit the magazine of Fort Pickens, doing, however, no damage, is also in the possession of one of the officers of the Baltic.

Where the village of Warrenton stood, near the navy yard, the chimneys of some of the houses are standing alone like sentinels. A few detached buildings are not consumed.

It is now understood that nearly if not quite all the positions of the rebel forces are under command of Col. Brown's guns, and that he awaits reinforcements to reopen the fire and clear out the rebels.

Vesuvius is again in a state of violent pertubation. At last accounts it had openee fire with unusual vivacity, and was bombarding the adjacent villages with a will.—The pretty town of Terre del Greco, between Naples and Pompeii, was threatened with destruction.

The Detroit Free Press mentions something we had never heard before, viz: that the Second Michigan regiment has been promoted in a body to the regular army, and is now the "Twenty-first Regiment, U. S. A." This, we believe, is the first promotion of the kind that has occurred during the war, and is a high and deserved honor.

Institute for the Blind.

We request the attention of our cotemporaries to the following circular. There is room for a larger number of pupils than is now receiving instruction in the Institute, and surely the benefits of the education provided for are too valuable to be neglected or refused by the parents or guardians of the unfortunate children entrusted to their care.

Wis. Inst. for the Education of the Blind,
Janesville, Jan. 1st, 1862.

The thirteenth session of this institution began on the second of Sept. last, and is going on prosperously, more pupils being in attendance than at any previous time.

The institution is entirely supported by the state, which aims to furnish here for the blind of suitable age, the education that she provides in the common school for her more favored children, and to give them besides, by a knowledge of some mechanical art or by skill in music, the means of future self-maintenance and usefulness.

The recent completion of the main building affords room for a larger number of pupils; and there are, doubtless, in the state many blind youth entitled to its advantages, who are allowing the proper time for instruction to pass by unimproved.

Parents or friends of such persons are invited to correspond with the undersigned respecting their admission.

THOMAS H. LITTLE, Supt.

Artillery Practice.—The Racine Advocate says that Capt. Carpenter arrived in that city last Saturday with a fine company of 95 men, comprising the 8th battery.

Capt. Foster has done some excellent artillery practice. The target was an iceberg some ten feet long and three or four feet high, that had formed on the end of a protection pier off the point near Michigan street, the distance from the camp being about a mile. It was very soon shorn of its dimensions, several balls hitting it fairly.

Measles still prevail in camp, but not of an alarming type.

The arrangement recently made by which the men do their own cooking, seems to please them. They succeed in getting up some astonishing dishes, according to their own account. It will at any rate prepare them to encounter a campaign in the field better than the old plan.

The Rarey Exhibition.—After the exposition of his theory, Mr. Rarey introduced what struck the audience as a good subject—a furious black stallion, who had no sooner touched the platform than he began rearing, plunging and displaying his heels high in the air in a manner that was truly entertaining to all present. Considerable merriment was occasioned by this displayal of devilment on the part of the seemingly irrepressible stallion, and at the same time an apprehension was manifest that Mr. Rarey, unless he was careful, might get his brains kicked out. That gentleman, however, showed perfect confidence. After waltzing about the stage awhile with his partner, he succeeded in persuading him to submit his head to the soothing touch of his human hand. Then the tamer ventured to touch the fore leg of the animal, but this presumption was angrily resented, and another brilliant display by the hind legs of the animal, was the immediate consequence. Presently, however, the lecturer succeeded in exciting friendly feeling by lifting one of the fore feet, which was immediately strapped up so that not much more could be done in the way of kicking. The other fore foot was taken up, and the horse lay upon his side. After some loud snorting and some spasmodic action of the hind legs, the conquered animal seemed to conclude that all was over. Presently the straps were removed and Mr. Rarey, with perfect safety, placed his hands upon the same heels which a few moments before had been darting like zig zag lightnings in the air. All sorts of personal liberties were taken with him without resistance. He was subjugated.—Chicago Post.

Artemus Ward.—The New York Times in speaking of the lecture which A. Ward, Esq., (Mr. Charles F. Browne,) is now delivering at the east, says:

"Mr. Browne is a tall, slim, and gentlemanly appearing young man, rather careful in his dress than otherwise, and gifted with an imperturbable expression of face, which adds very materially to the effect of the droll philosophies that are propounded by him. The "Children in the Wood" is a title skillfully made use of by the lecturer as a medium for saying a great many spicy and smart things upon the current topics of the day. Every now and then he alludes to the title, as having no immediate reference to something that has been spun out by him, the effect of which, aided by the droll solemnity with which it is uttered, convulses the audience with laughter. By the gift of nature, Mr. Brown is a commedan. His delivery is provokingly deliberate, and there is a subdued humor visible in every expression of his face. The reading was a decided success, and will be repeated in the same room on the evening of the 2d of January.

By careful examination it has been ascertained beyond doubt, that nine-tenths of all the sickness in camp is caused by sleeping upon the ground; and the neglect being susceptible of improvement causes much dissatisfaction among the soldiers.

A Sad Fact of War.—No person is living in the town of Belmont, Missouri, where a battle was fought some time since, the stench from dead horses preventing people from living within two miles of the town.

Jessup's Grain Drill.

Some of the peculiarities of the Jessup Grain Drill made by

R. J. Richardson, Janesville.

It is simple in its construction. It will be firmly and neatly made. It will distribute the grain very accurately, either with slow or fast speed, or on rough or smooth ground. It can be arranged to sow any quantity desired, and will surely sow within one pint per acre of what you arrange to sow. When the team stops it steps distributing, without touching. The teeth are seven inches apart instead of eight and nine inches, as other drills are. It will sow wheat, oats, barley, rye, corn, peas, or broom corn, but the gear must be changed for the different kinds of grain. It takes five minutes to change the gear. Although not made for a broad cast sower, it will sow all kins of grain grown in this climate as well and evenly as any machine made. It costs from ten to fifteen dollars less than any drill made elsewhere of the same size. It is made at home where it can be repaired if necessary.

BROAD CAST!

The following are a few of the parties who have used the drill, and all think it good enough:

J. M. BURGESS, Postmaster.

To Our Friends.

In consequence of the large number of accounts yet unsettled, which it is necessary or very desirable to close, the arrangement announced to take place on the 1st of January will be postponed until the 1st of February next. We return our thanks to those who have already responded to our call, and urge upon those who have not yet settled, the necessity of making a speedy settlement. It can be done easier and better now than hereafter. We do not wish to be unnecessarily importunate, but want to start next month with as clear books as possible.

HOME MANUFACTURES.—One of the most useful domestic "institutions" of the city is Woolliscroft's bakery. The proprietor is now supplying the two regiments here with bread, which require daily one thousand loaves, and the quality is pronounced of the first order. He has recently added to his work room a new and improved cracker machine, and is thus enabled to turn out a large supply of a superior quality, equal to anything sent here from the "mechanical bakery" of Chicago, or any other manufactory.

Incidental to his bakery, he runs an eating saloon, where the choicest dish of oysters or other palatable food can be procured, or from which a No. 1 supper can be sent for parties or families. Thomas seems to be in luck just now, and we hope it will long continue to him, for he is well worthy of it.

If you want the best TEAS in the market at the lowest price, go to [de30d1d] PALMER'S.

SPECIAL POLICE.—Constable Robertson has been appointed a special policeman by Mayor Doe, under the authority conferred by the council at its last meeting. The action of the council was right and commendable, and the appointment is a good one.—Mr. Robertson has already acquired an excellent reputation as a peace officer, and we expect to find him no less efficient in his new position.

NEW YEAR'S.—Yesterday was the quietest New Year's we have seen in Janesville. Very few calls were made, business was dull and a general quietness, even to depression seemed to prevail.

Webb & Lee have the latest styles of JEWELRY. de11d1m

PINERY CAVALRY COMPANY.—Capt. N. L. Stout of the Pinery Cavalry, has just returned and reports forty-two men at Camp Barstow belonging to his company. A number of recruits from the north part of the state, will arrive in the course of the week, which will increase the number to seventy. The company will be full within two weeks. They are all "pinery boys," and first rate men.

MISSION TO ROME.—A. D. Smith is said to be an applicant for the mission to Rome, in contemplation of the appointment of Gov. Randall to a military command.

If you want to see a splendid assortment of SILVER GOODS call on (de11d1m) WEBB & LEE.

ARREST OF A SOLDIER ON CHARGE OF MURDER.—A man named Bowers, a private in one of the Wisconsin regiments (says a Washington correspondent) was arrested and taken back to Wisconsin, a day or two since. The charge preferred against him is murder. He was recognized by means of a daguerreotype.

PERSONAL.—Senator Doolittle was in Milwaukee Monday evening. He returns to Washington immediately after the expiration of the holidays.

RESIGNATION.—Col. Rankin, a British subject about whom so much parade has been made for recruiting a regiment for the federal army, has resigned his commission because he is unwilling to do anything against his own government.

Plated TEA SETTS, Castors, Cake Baskets, Forks and Spoons, at (de11d1m) WEBB & LEE'S.

SUPREME COURT.—The following decisions in the first circuit were announced last Monday:

7. Kimball vs. Johnson. Opinion by Dixon C. J. Judgment reversed, with costs, and cause remanded with directions to enter judgment for plaintiff, according to demand of complaint.

13. Paine vs. Chase. Opinion by Dixon C. J. Writ of error dismissed with costs.

24. Wilson vs. Hunter. Opinion by Paine J. Judgment reversed with costs, and cause remanded with directions to enter judgment for plaintiff, according to prayer of complaint.

Court adjourned until next Tuesday.

FOR SILVER SPOONS AND FORKS, call on de11d1m WEBB & LEE.

FARM MORTGAGES.—The Home League has commenced the publication of a full list of the farm mortgages in this state, with the names of the mortgagors and the amount of each mortgage. Its last issue contained the list in Columbia county, which amounts to 229 mortgages, and a total of $479,292. Hugh McFarlane and W. Armstrong have a mortgage of $20,000; H. and Sarah McFarlane one for $5,000; Andrew Dunn one for $10,000; and several for from $2,000 to $3,000. The average is a little over $1,200.

AN OLD TROPHY GONE.—The old cannon which has for half a century done duty in Kenosha on all holiday occasions, has uttered its last thunder.

Since the advent of the cavalry it has been used at Camp Harvey as the signal gun; and on Tuesday evening at gunfire it burst into a thousand fragments, happily without injury to any person.

It was chiefly valued as a trophy of Perry's Lake Erie victory.

To Our Friends.

In consequence of the large number of accounts yet unsettled, which it is necessary or very desirable to close, the arrangement announced to take place on the 1st of January will be postponed until the 1st of February next. We return our thanks to those who have already responded to our call, and urge upon those who have not yet settled, the necessity of making a speedy settlement. It can be done easier and better now than hereafter. We do not wish to be unnecessarily importunate, but want to start next month with as clear books as possible.

HOME MANUFACTURES.—One of the most useful domestic "institutions" of the city is Woolliscroft's bakery. The proprietor is now supplying the two regiments here with bread, which require daily one thousand loaves, and the quality is pronounced of the first order. He has recently added to his work room a new and improved cracker machine, and is thus enabled to turn out a large supply of a superior quality, equal to anything sent here from the "mechanical bakery" of Chicago, or any other manufactory.

Incidental to his bakery, he runs an eating saloon, where the choicest dish of oysters or other palatable food can be procured, or from which a No. 1 supper can be sent for parties or families. Thomas seems to be in luck just now, and we hope it will long continue to him, for he is well worthy of it.

If you want the best TEAS in the market at the lowest price, go to [de20d10d] PALMER'S.

SPECIAL POLICE.—Constable Robertson has been appointed a special policeman by Mayor Doe, under the authority conferred by the council at its last meeting. The action of the council was right and commendable, and the appointment is a good one.—Mr. Robertson has already acquired an excellent reputation as a peace officer, and we expect to find him no less efficient in his new position.

NEW YEAR'S.—Yesterday was the quietest New Year's we have seen in Janesville. Very few calls were made, business was dull and a general quietness, even to depression seemed to prevail.

Webb & Lee have the latest styles of JEWELRY. del1d1m

PINERY CAVALRY COMPANY.—Capt. N. L. Stout of the Pinery Cavalry, has just returned and reports forty-two men at Camp Barstow belonging to his company. A number of recruits from the north part of the state, will arrive in the course of the week, which will increase the number to seventy. The company will be full within two weeks. They are all "pinery boys," and first rate men.

MISSION TO ROME.—A. D. Smith is said to be an applicant for the mission to Rome, in contemplation of the appointment of Gov. Randall to a military command.

If you want to see a splendid assortment of SILVER GOODS call on (del1d1m) WEBB & LEE.

ARREST OF A SOLDIER ON CHARGE OF MURDER.—A man named Bowers, a private in one of the Wisconsin regiments (says a Washington correspondent) was arrested and taken back to Wisconsin, a day or two since. The charge preferred against him is murder. He was recognized by means of a daguerreotype.

PERSONAL.—Senator Doolittle was in Milwaukee Monday evening. He returns to Washington immediately after the expiration of the holidays.

RESIGNATION.—Col. Rankin, a British subject, about whom so much parade has been made for recruiting a regiment for the federal army, has resigned his commission because he is unwilling to do anything against his own government.

Plated TEA SETTS, Castors, Cake Baskets, Forks and Spoons, at (del1d1m) WEBB & LEE'S.

SUPREME COURT.—The following decisions in the first circuit were announced last Monday:

7. Kimball vs. Johnson. Opinion by Dixon C. J. Judgment reversed with costs, and cause remanded with directions to enter judgment for plaintiff, according to demand of complaint.

13. Paine vs. Chase. Opinion by Dixon C. J. Writ of error dismissed with costs.

24. Wilson vs. Hunter. Opinion by Paine J. Judgment reversed with costs, and cause remanded with directions to enter judgment for plaintiff, according to prayer of complaint.

Court adjourned until next Tuesday.

FOR SILVER SPOONS AND FORKS, call on del1d1m WEBB & LEE.

FARM MORTGAGES.—The Home League has commenced the publication of a full list of the farm mortgages in this state, with the names of the mortgagors and the amount of each mortgage. Its last issue contained the list in Columbia county, which amounts to 229 mortgages, and a total of $479,202. Hugh McFarlane and W. Armstrong have a mortgage of $20,000; H. and Sarah McFarlane one for $5,000; Andrew Dunn one for $10,000; and several for from $2,000 to $3,000. The average is a little over $1,200.

FOR HOLIDAY GOODS, call on del1d1m WEBB & LEE.

AN OLD TROPHY GONE.—The old cannon which has for half a century done duty in Kenosha on all holiday occasions, has uttered its last thunder.

Since the advent of the cavalry it has been used at Camp Harvey as the signal gun; and on Tuesday evening at gunfire it burst into a thousand fragments, happily without injury to any person.

It was chiefly valued as a trophy of Perry's Lake Erie victory.

or sell by the yard or piece. Persons purchasing cloth can have the same cut and trimmed at our Clothing Department.

We will now say, in conclusion, to the rich and poor, old and young, that will not be undersold by any firm in the United States. Don't be deceived by false signals, but come to the store of McKey & Bro's where you will see more goods than the combined stocks of the would-be large stores of this city.

To meet the wants of our increasing trade, we are now enlarging our store, which, when completed, will compare in size with any west of New York city. The new addition will be completed in 30 days from date, making the size of our store 44 by 166 feet, enabling us to do all our wholesale and retail business on the ground floor. Respectfully Submitted,

McKEY & BRO.,
